

Board Bia top table announced

Bord Bia, the State Agency with responsibility for promoting and developing the marketing of Irish food, drink and horticulture, had a its board of directors for the coming three years appointed last week.

Dawn Meats managing director Dan Browne was appointed the position of Chairman of the Board of An Bord Bia.

In making the announcement last week the Minister for Agriculture, Fisheries and Food, Mary Coughlan listed the appointed board for the coming year.

The board will comprise of Vincent Cleary, Managing Director of Glenisk Organic Ireland and Paul Cusack, Principal of the Amenity Horticulture College, National Botanic Gardens as ordinary members of the Board. Outgoing members Joe Hyland and Ray Carolan have been reappointed.

The term of appointment in each case is 3 years.

An Board Bia has a huge impact on Irish agriculture as it works in partnership with industry to develop markets for Irish produce at home and overseas.

Dan Browne